

Acceptable use

The Go Learn Australia social media accounts welcome comments on its pages. Please apply common sense when making comments. If it is something that you would not say or show at work or school, then we recommend you do not post it on this account. Comments links, photographs and videos deemed inappropriate will be deleted.

We are committed to maintaining your privacy and ask that you respect the privacy of others when posting on these social media accounts. Inflammatory, defamatory, commercial, spam, overtly party political and comments encouraging activities illegal in Australia or that are detected as transgressing copyright or intellectual property laws will be deleted.

The following behaviour will not be tolerated and we will remove offending content and block the contributor:

- comments which are defamatory, offensive, obscene, vulgar or depicting violence
- acting in a manner which is abusive, harassing, stalking, threatening or attacking others
- language that is hateful, targets race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, gender, nationality and/or political beliefs
- spamming
- commercial solicitation or solicitation of donations
- trolling or deliberately disrupting discussion
- violations of any intellectual property rights
- content encouraging illegal activity

Your use of any social media platform is subject to the terms and conditions of that site. These terms and conditions are not under the control of Go Learn Australia initiative.

Privacy

The Go Learn Australia initiative is not responsible, liable for and does not endorse the privacy practices of Twitter and Facebook or any linked websites. Your use of social media and any linked websites is at your own risk.

The Go Learn Australia initiative information posted to the Go Learn Australia social media accounts uses that information for the purpose of administering this account, for record keeping and for considering and/or addressing any comments made. No attempt will be made to further identify page fans except where requested and authorised by law.

Terms of use

The views expressed in any post or otherwise contained on the Go Learn Australia social media pages are those of the individual sender. Views expressed on the Go Learn Australia social media pages by anyone other than the Go Learn Australia initiative are not the views of the Go Learn Australia initiative disclaims all liability for those views.

The Go Learn Australia reserves the right to remove posts at its sole discretion (see Acceptable Use Policy above).

The Go Learn Australia social media pages provide general information which is current at the time of production. The information contained in this site is general and is not intended to serve as advice. Users should seek independent advice in relation to their particular business affairs.

The Go Learn Australia initiative to review the content of the Go Learn Australia social media pages on a regular basis. However, there may be times when comments, that do not meet the Acceptable Use Policy, appear on the account before they can be removed.